

Call for Papers: Asian American Voices

To be published in May 2024

Asian American Voices (<http://laguardia.edu/AAPI> or <https://bit.ly/LG-AAV>) is a collection of literary and visual work created by LaGuardia students to celebrate Asian and Asian American heritages at LaGuardia. We aim to showcase the diverse cultures, religions, histories, festivals, languages, and talents of the Asian American community of our campus as well as student work related to Asian American Studies. Students of all backgrounds are invited to submit their work to the sixth issue of Asian American Voices, which will be published in May 2024. The submission link is <http://bit.ly/AAV2024> or scan the QR code above. The deadline is Friday, December 22, 2023.

We accept the following works:

- Critical essays (5 pages max.)
- Short fiction, drama, and creative nonfiction (4 pages max.)
- Recipes (2 pages max.)
- Art: photography, painting, and drawing (up to 3)
- Poems (submit up to 3)
- Interviews and Reflections (3 pages max.)

Guidelines

- Literary submissions should be in Word Doc format.
- Art submissions should be sent within 100 megabytes (MB) and accompanied by a description
- Work should be proofread and revised for grammar errors.
