

Special Tour at The Noguchi Museum for LaGuardia Faculty & Staff

The President's Office & AAPI Heritage Month Committee

- DATE: Thursday, February 29, 2024
- TIME: 3:30pm-5:30pm
- PLACE: The Noguchi Museum (9-01 33rd Rd, LIC, NY 11106)

As a kickoff event for the AAPI Heritage Celebration in Spring 2024, the President's Office and the AAPI Heritage Month Committee are pleased to invite faculty and staff to a guided tour at The Noguchi Museum on Thursday, February 29, 2024. President Kenneth Adams will join the tour and the short reception that follows. Isamu Noguchi, one of the most important and critically acclaimed sculptors of the twentieth century, was influenced in his artistic journey by his travels. He incorporated elements from diverse cultures and materials into his sculptures, gardens, furniture, lighting designs, ceramics, architecture, landscapes, and set designs. The tour will take place at The Noguchi Museum, located at 9-01 33rd Rd, LIC, NY 11106, in LIC. To RSVP, please visit <https://bit.ly/lagccEventReg>. We are confident that your visit will be a valuable experience, offering fresh perspectives for your teaching activities in Spring 2024.

LaGuardia Community College has been celebrating the Asian American Pacific Islander (AAPI) Celebration in May every year. AAPI is an annual event of LaGuardia featuring various cultural, philosophical, and linguistic heritages from Asian countries. Along with the other cultural heritage celebrations, including African American Heritage week and Latino Heritage week, AAPI acknowledges and celebrates diversity and cultural richness of LaGuardia Community College.
